STATEMENT: Narrative should be written in the first person.

I was notified of the investigation into my computer use at work the morning of [REDACTED] 10/13 by a visit from the PG agent [REDACTED] took my laptop and later some thumb drives. I was interviewed at [REDACTED] office at 1200 Penn Ave along with [REDACTED]. They showed me copies of pictures I downloaded from various internet sites over a period of time. They asked me how long I had been downloading these pictures and how much time I spent surfing internet sites to find these pictures. I told them it varied from day to day. On a day where I had little work to get done, the surfing may be as much as 5-6 hrs but on a day when I had to get some work done it could be an hour or less. They asked me if I downloaded any child pornography and I said no. They asked me if anyone in the office had seen me doing the downloading and I said I didn't believe anyone had. They asked me if I did any of the surfing/downloading at home and I said no. The reason being I wouldn't want my [REDACTED] to see me doing it. They asked me how long I had been doing this and I said several years if not and on. They asked me if I had behaved inappropriately in my cell knowing that they had found evidence of semen on my laptop. I told them I did not masturbate in the wheelchair but admitted that I had done so while sitting on the toilet in the mess room. They asked me if I had talked with anyone in the office about the downloading - suggesting that they had evidence that I had. I denied doing that. They discussed the ethics of doing the downloading on government property and time and I admitted that I recognized that my actions were inappropriate and I realized that at the time but couldn't help myself resist the temptation when time was slack at work. I got into the habit of downloading pictures of Playboy models. They asked me about my performance evaluations in the past. I told them I got "exceed expectations" most times and that I could get the assigned work done while still doing some internet surfing. They also told me that the downloaded pictures were appearing in the shared drive and I told them I didn't understand how that
